

Conferences

• “Les étoiles brillent pour tous” (stars are shining for everybody) is an association of researchers, with the objective of bringing science to people little or no exposed to it.

Main activities are conferences in hospitals, retirement homes, jails, etc. around Toulouse.

Latest activity is a series of conferences about Earth observation and history of science at Muret’s jail.

- L. Testut, An history of oceanic tide
- V. Rosmorduc, Jules Verne and the oceans
- G. Ceuleneer, What's volcanoes roots look like? short trip inside Earth
- F. Rémy, An history of climate and ices

- Author name: F. Rémy, L. Testut (CNRS), V. Rosmorduc
- Year: since 2004
- Public aimed: general public
- Medium: lecture
- Size / Format: N/A
- Language(s): French