

30 years of El Niño by altimetry

The best known climatic disturbances, called “El Niño” occurs in the tropical Pacific. However, it is only one side of an irregular cycle called “ENSO” (El Niño - Southern Oscillation), the other extreme being “La Niña”. Their consequences, often catastrophic, led to establishing important means of monitoring and forecasting, at sea and in space.

2022

2021

2020

2019

2018

2017

2016

2015

2014

2013

2012

2011

2010

2009

2008

2007

2006

2005

2004

2003

2002

2001

2000

1999

1998

1997

1996

1995

1994

1993

-20 -10 0 10 20
November monthly means of Sea Level Anomalies (annual and seasonal cycles removed)

cm

